two hundred years ago...

"we the people" set out to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and to our posterity. If our bicentennial year is to have any genuine significance, we must now, two hundred years later, ask whether as individuals and as a nation "we the people" still hold the same basic truths—whether we still care about justice, peace, freedom—and care enough to lead the kinds of lives that will ensure that this nation, conceived in liberty, will not perish from the earth.

Sister Cecilia Louise,
on February 28, 1976

"What is it that gentlemen wish? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, Give me Liberty, or Give me Death!"

Patrick Henry — Delivered before the Convention of Delegates,
Richmond, Virginia,
March 28, 1775

April 19, 1775, Concord common, Massachusetts. Seventy Minutemen came running and formed into two lines beside the road. Then came the scarlet column of British soldiers. Captain Parker's immortal command is now carved into stone: "Stand your ground; don't fire unless fired upon, but if they mean to have a war, let it begin here!" The firing began and the firing ceased. Eight Americans lay dead. Thus began our War for Independence, calling into duty General George Washington, "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Henry Lee — Funeral Oration
for Washington

"The unity of government which constitutes you one people is now dear to you. It is justly so; for it is a main pillar in the edifice of your real independence, the support of your tranquility at home, your peace abroad, of your safety, of your prosperity, of that very liberty which you so highly prize."

George Washington — Farewell Address

50 years★ ★ young!

The Founder's Day signs said 50 years but the spirit and smiles said "You'll never grow old."
Happy Birthday, MSMC!

“that’s entertainment”

“We’re Mount St. Mary’s girls, we wear our hair in curls...” And that’s not all we do. On October 25 each class presented entertainment for the 50th anniversary of Founder’s Day. We showed the creativity and spirit of all past and present Mount students. The class competition was won by the Class of 1977.

Halloween came early to the Mount with the Sophomores' Social Night in the Campus Center. Furry beasts and screaming inhabitants of coffins created an eerily exciting atmosphere. Ralph whooped it up joining in the pumpkin carols ("an owl in a dead tree" was his Favorite) and Ethel nearly drowned herself bobbing for apples.

- Well Ethel, maybe not, but that one sure does a good impersonation of Peggy Fleming and I'm going to get her autograph before she double sachows right into the bleachers.

★ anniversary mass ★

"We are moving beyond our youth," was one of Monsignor O'Reilly's reflections during the Golden Anniversary Mass of Thanksgiving and reception on December 12, 1975. He was joined in the celebration of the Mass by Cardinal Timothy Manning, Bishop Ward,, Father Patrick Kelly and Father Cassassa, S.S.

christmas concert

"To us a Child has been born today. . ." In the Mount's traditional heralding of Christmas, on December 5, 1975, the House of Studies Chapel glittered with candle-light and song in a spirited Choral Concert. The Mount community and friends then gathered with the Consort Singers for a reception in celebration of the shining Christmas performance.

snac...

To welcome all class levels of Nursing majors, in September the Mount Chapter of the Student Nurses Association of Calif. gathered for lunch in Campus Center. Nursing faculty and SNAC officers were introduced as well as plans for the coming year... The theme was "we're student nurses now, but soon to be R.N.'s—let's look to the future by keeping up with nursing as it moves ahead."
